DETAILED ACTION

1. The Office acknowledges the receipt of Applicant's restriction election filed November 26, 2003. Applicant elects Group I and Invention E (SEQ ID NO:9 encoding SEQ ID NO:10) without traverse. Claims 19-30 are pending and are examined in the instant application. This restriction is made FINAL.

Sequence Listing

2. Applicant's CRF and paper sequence listing have been entered. However, upon examination of SEQ ID NO:9 and its corresponding amino acid sequence SEQ ID NO:10, it is unclear what region of SEQ ID NO:9 encodes SEQ ID NO:10. Clarification is required.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. An initialed and dated copy of Applicant's IDS form 1449, filed January 29, 2001 is attached to the instant Office action.

Drawings

4. Formal drawings are required in response to the instant Office action.

5. The following informality has been noted and requires correction in response to this Office Action. Since figures must be numbered separately, i.e. "Figure 1A," "Figure 1B," etc. , Applicant is required to amend the Brief Description of the Drawings accordingly to reflect the proper figure designations which are in formal drawings when drawings are submitted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, first paragraph

6. Claims 19-21 and 24-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claims reciting 85-95% sequence identity lack adequate written description because Applicant does not disclose a representative number of species as encompassed by these claims. The claims encompass mutants and allelic variants and thus imply that structural variants exist in nature, yet no structural variant has been disclosed. The claims also encompass cellulose synthases from other species. The implication is that there is a gene and a protein other than that disclosed which exists in nature, but the structure thereof is not known. Applicant discloses a single sequence SEQ ID NO:9 isolated from corn. Thus, there is insufficient relevant identifying characteristics to allow one skilled in the art to predictably determine such mutants, allelic variants and cellulose synthases from other plants and organisms, absent further guidance. Accordingly, there is lack of adequate description to inform a skilled artisan that applicant was in possession of the claimed invention at the time of filing. See Written Description guidelines published in Federal Register/ Vol.66, No. 4/ Friday, January 5, 2001/ Notices; p. 1099-1111.

7. Claims 19-21 and 24-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for SEQ ID NO:9 and a nucleic acid sequence encoding SEQ ID NO:10, does not reasonably provide enablement for nucleic acid sequences having 85-95% sequence identity to SEQ ID NO:10 at the amino acid level. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. The breadth of the claims encompasses sequences having unspecified deletions, additions, substitutions and combinations thereof while maintaining cellulose synthase activity. Neither the state of the prior art nor Applicant provided guidance as to which regions of SEQ ID NO:9 or a sequence encoding SEQ ID NO:10 must be retained for activity, and which regions can tolerate mutations. Applicant provided no working examples of sequences having 85-95% sequence identity. While one skilled in the art can readily make mutations to SEQ ID NO:9 or a sequence encoding SEQ ID NO:10, further guidance is required as to which mutations would be tolerated. Absent of such guidance, one skilled in the art cannot make and use the claimed invention as commensurate in scope with the claims without undue experimentation.

Remarks

8. Claims 22-23 are objected to as being dependent on a rejected claim but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form. It is understood by the Office the recited Clustal V alignment method uses the default parameters set forth on page 18 of the specification. The closest prior art teaches a sequence isolated from Arabidopsis thaliana having 70% sequence identity with SEQ ID NO:10 (p. 18 of specification).

9. Papers relating to this application may be submitted to Technology Sector 1 by facsimile transmission. Papers should be faxed to Crystal Mall 1, Art Unit 1638, using fax number (703) 308-4242. Please note that the faxing of such papers must conform with the Notice published in the Official Gazette, 1096 OG 30, (November 15, 1989).
